

Leadership – Voyageur Level

1. Show your ability to be a contributing member of a small group (patrol) and a larger group (troop) by participating in planning a portion of a troop activity which meets a Voyageur level requirement of the OUTDOOR

2. Discuss the difference between a “boss” and a “leader” with your court of honor, or patrol. Provide example of each style through role play with your patrol member.

3. Select a person who has a leadership role in your community. Discuss and evaluate their methods. Then, in your own words, explain what makes the person a good leader. Some suggestions and examples might include coaches, scout leaders, teachers, and service club members.

4. Describe the roles and responsibilities of the patrol leader, assistant patrol leader, activity leader and scout leader.

5. Help plan skills or activity session for the troop, and evaluate how the session went.

6. Discuss the function and purpose of the Court of Honor, and patrol meeting.

7. Develop and practice a home fire plan with your family. Discuss the successes, and identify the shortcomings of your plan.

Leadership- Pathfinder Level

1. Research a local or world leader. Lead a ten minutes discussion about this leader (including a leadership role he or she played) in your patrol or troop

2. Plan and participate in leading an all-day outdoor activity for your patrol. Evaluate the event with your patrol at the end of the activity.

3. Using a patrol meeting, plan and conduct a troop camping trip lasting at least forty-eight hours. A detailed plan will be developed showing the steps necessary to have a successful venture. Evaluate the event with your patrol at the end of the activity.

4. Teach a basic level skill to a scouting working at the pioneer of Voyageur level skills. At the end of your activity the scout must successfully demonstrate good knowledge of the subject

5. Provide a leadership role to another group (cubs, church, sports, etc.) discuss your experience with your patrol leader and/or scouter.
