

Culture & Society Category

Heritage

1. Show that you know where to find information about the heritage of your community by explaining :

- a) Primary and Secondary sources;
- b) Oral and written sources; and
- c) The use of materials in archives, museums, and libraries.

2. Carry out one of the projects suggested below, and make an oral, written, or scrapbook presentation to your troop.

- a) Construct a family tree showing at least five generations.
- b) Give a report on the origins of your community or neighbourhood.
- c) In a rural area, make a study of at least 30 early grave stones in the local cemetery. Give a presentation of these former residents and how they contributed to the area.

3. a) Outline the history of the World Scout Movement from its beginning, with special emphasis on the contribution of its founder; and

- b) Give a brief history of your own Scout troop and district.

4. Choose an historic building, place, monument, park, structure, or organization in your area, and give a report on its history and importance.

5. Research and make a presentation on the history and legends of Native people in your area

OR

6. Research and make a presentation of Native people in their present-day life.

Literary Arts

1. Show an interest in one or more of the literary arts by presenting and discussing some of your work in such field as biography, drama, fiction, or poetry.

OR

2. Present reviews of books, plays, poems, radio, TV shows, or movies and be prepared to discuss and defend your opinions.
